BACKGROUND:

This Guideline was originally implemented in September 2002 and revised by the Management Committee in March 2015.

GUIDELINE: TRAINING BOARDS – JUNIOR ACTIVITIES MEMBERS

Junior Activities Members are not permitted to utilise club training boards outside of designated training sessions, without approval from the JAC Chair.

GUIDELINE: TRAINING BOARDS – PROBATIONARY SENIOR MEMBERS

Probationary Senior Members can utilise club training boards outside designated training sessions if approval is granted by the Club Trainer, provided the following conditions are adhered to:

- Qualified supervision is provided (Patrol on duty: lifesaver or lifeguard).
- Only club training boards can be used
- Training is completed with a suitable qualified 'buddy' (i.e. SRC or BM Holder).
- Hi Vis Rash Vests are worn at all times

Please note that: Training outside of approved (Management Committee endorsed) club training sessions is at your own risk as you are not covered by SLSQ Insurance. Any damage to club equipment will be member's responsibility to fix and or pay for.

GUIDELINE: TRAINING BOARDS – SENIOR MEMBERS

Senior Members can utilise club training boards outside designated training sessions, provided the following conditions are adhered to:

- Member must hold a proficient Bronze Medallion
- Only club training boards can be used
- It is preferred that you have a "buddy" with you when training on Club boards outside of regular training sessions.
- Hi Vis Rash Vests are worn at all times

Please note that: Training outside of approved (Management Committee endorsed) club training sessions is at your own risk as you are not covered by SLSQ Insurance. Any damage to club equipment will be member's responsibility to fix and or pay for.
